

Welcome to the Animal Pain Management Center

The APMC is a veterinary practice devoted to the alleviation of animal pain with the goals of increasing your pet's quality of life and their longevity. We offer many different management options including conventional oral medications, advanced intravenous and epidural (spinal) medications, physiotherapy, as well as TCVM acupuncture and herbal therapies.

Please answer the following questions:

Who referred you to our practice?

- My regular veterinarian, _____
- My regular veterinarian declined to refer me for treatment
- A friend or coworker, _____
- I was not referred by anyone

Please indicate your interest in the following treatment categories - please circle the number that best represents your interest

- Conventional outpatient western medications - Not very 1 2 3 4 5 Very interested Need more information
- Advanced in-hospital western pain therapies - Not very 1 2 3 4 5 Very interested Need more information
- Acupuncture and herbal medications - Not very 1 2 3 4 5 Very interested Need more information
- Physiotherapy/Rehabilitation therapy - Not very 1 2 3 4 5 Very interested Need more information

Please list your top 3 to 5 goals for your pet. Be as specific as possible.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Many people consider their pets very important family members; some even consider their pet to be their most important life companion. Please circle the number that best represents your feelings about this description:

- Disagree 1 2 3 4 5 Strongly agree

